NORTON TO VISIT WESTERN SLOPE Lieutenant Governor to Speak at Grand Junction Events

Denver, CO –Lieutenant Governor Jane Bergman Norton will be making her first trip to the Western Slope since being inaugurated on January 14. During the March 7 to 11 tour, Lieutenant Governor Norton will be meeting with regional leaders, local business professionals and presenting awards to nurses and community volunteers.

Born and raised in Grand Junction, Lieutenant Governor Norton is pleased to return to her hometown. “I’ve enjoyed meeting with members of the Grand Junction Chamber and Club 20 during their recent visits to Denver,” she said. “I’m looking forward to continuing that dialogue and learning more about the issues important to the Western Slope. This trip gives me a chance to continue that conversation.”
